503.203 Reporting suspected violations of the Gratuities clause.

- (a) Employees must report immediately a suspected violation of the Gratuities clause to each of the following:
- (1) The contracting officer;
- (2) Assistant Inspector General for Investigations or the Regional Special Agent in Charge; and
- (3) Deputy Standards of Conduct Counselor.
- (b) The report must describe the circumstances under which the Gratuities clause has been violated and include all pertinent documents.
- (c) The Office of Inspector General will investigate and, if appropriate, forward a report and recommendation to the Department of Justice, the Senior Procurement Executive, or the Office of General Counsel. See also 5 CFR 6701.107.

Parent topic: Subpart 503.2 - Contractor Gratuities to Government Personnel